Talk Title:

"We're Better Together"

Reverend Elgena "Niki"
Weaver

Keynote Speaker

Rev. Elgena "Niki" Weaver attended Tennessee Technological College in Memphis where she studied Surgical Assisting and graduated with Honors in June 1996. After many years of soul searching, she accepted her call to the ministry in 2006 and was admitted on trial in 2007. She was Ordained as a Deacon in 2009, as an Elder in 2011, and admitted into Full Connection in 2013 in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Weaver completed the Success Program at Texas College in 2011 towards a degree in Business Administration.

After serving several years as an Associate Minister as well as an Assistant Pastor in the Eighth Episcopal District under the leadership of Senior Bishop and Presiding Prelate Lawrence L. Reddick III, in July 2019 she graciously accepted the opportunity and was transferred into the Ninth Episcopal District under Bishop Bobby R. Best. Currently, she serves as proud Pastor of the Century Chapel CME Church of Sacramento, California, where her desire is to impact and empower not only those within the four walls of the church but also everyone she meets.

Rev. Weaver strives to maintain a life that exemplifies high character and integrity. She believes that for Christians to be relevant and relatable today, they must maintain a true spirit of humility, love and compassion.
